SIGHTS AND SOUNDS OF SPRING
I love the sounds of springtime, The breezes in the air The birds, the bees, the ripping trees Make music everywhere.
I love the greening forest, The budding daffodils. The suddenness of color Upon the fields and hills. And when the sun is setting, I love the hushing tone Of darkness as it steals across The valleys, hills and stones. More beautiful is this, our world, Than all the universe…
More perfect in its symphony, The music of the earth. From the Salesian Collection
